

Tribal Education Capacity Building Grant Program

2024 Request for Applications

The Bonneville Power Administration, headquartered in Portland, Oregon, is a nonprofit federal power marketer that sells wholesale electricity from 31 federal dams and one nuclear plant to 143 electric utilities, serving millions of consumers and businesses in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, western Montana and parts of California, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming. BPA delivers power via more than 15,000 circuit miles of lines and 260 substations to 511 transmission customers. In all, BPA markets about a third of the electricity consumed in the Northwest and operates three-quarters of the region's high-voltage transmission grid. BPA also funds one of the largest fish and wildlife programs in the world, and with its partners pursues cost-effective energy savings and operational solutions that help maintain affordable, reliable and carbon-free electric power for the Northwest. More information about BPA can be found at www.bpa.gov.

Program Goals and Objectives

The Bonneville Power Administration's Tribal Education Capacity Building Grant program provides funding assistance to federally recognized tribes to advance awareness and understanding of the federal Columbia River Power and Transmission system and BPA programs.

BPA is requesting proposals that support tribal education programs in science, technology, engineering, math, and natural and cultural resource management. Proposals should be designed to strengthen the capacity of tribes, support government-to-government relationships, and increase opportunities for education about the operation of the Federal Columbia River Power System, Federal Columbia River Transmission System or integrated Fish and Wildlife Program.

Projects should include how the project will advance participants awareness and understanding of electrical generation and transmission, energy efficiency, hydropower, environmental stewardship of the Columbia River Basin habitat and ecosystems, and cultural resource management.

Individual grants awarded will not exceed $25,000.

Eligibility Criteria

- Application must be submitted by a federally recognized tribe within the Bonneville Power Administration service territory.
- Grant applicants must demonstrate the grant will be used for STEM/natural and cultural resources educational purposes related to a BPA program area in the BPA service territory.
- Proposed project must be implemented between June 1, 2024, and September 30, 2024.
- Tribes may submit more than one application, however, if multiple applications are ranked for selection, only the application with the higher score will be considered.
- Grant applicants will be excluded from consideration if found to be debarred, suspended or otherwise ineligible to receive federal funding.

Unless publicly available or required to be made available under the Freedom of Information Act, information submitted by applicant will be used for evaluation only and will not be disclosed outside of BPA without the applicant's approval.

Proposal Evaluation

Applications will be evaluated by an internal BPA selection committee. The selection committee is comprised of BPA subject matter experts and does not include Tribal Affairs staff. Grant applications will be selected based on the evaluation criteria below.

Terms and Conditions of Award

BPA may fund all or part of a proposed project. Because this is a grant, grantees may request a 90-day advance payment by submitting Standard Form 270 to the Tribal Affairs Contracting Officers Representative (COR) after award.

Award recipients are required to file a progress report halfway through the project and a statement of completion at the end of the performance period.

Grants are awarded on annual basis and do not provide ongoing program funding. Funding cannot be extended.

Recipients are required to acknowledge BPA as appropriate in public materials such as press releases, web sites, handouts, signage, etc. Recipients are required to work in coordination with BPA Tribal and Public Affairs staff to highlight their project via newspaper articles, video clips or other media.

Evaluation Criteria

Applications will be evaluated on each of the following criteria and rated on a scale of 1-5.

- Criteria 1: Application clearly explains the project goals and objectives.
- Criteria 2: Application provides a clear and reasonable approach to accomplish the project within the performance period.
- Criteria 3: The proposed activity is clearly linked to STEM education and/or education fields related to BPA programs.
